About the Collegeville-Trappe Ministerium:

The Collegeville-Trappe Ministerium of Churches is an organization of local churches. The Ministerium, includes St. James' Episcopal Church, Trinity United Church of Christ, St. Eleanor Roman Catholic, Augustus Lutheran, Evansburg United Methodist, and St. Lukes' United Church of Christ. Community worship services sponsored by the group include the Wednesday Evening Lenten Series and Thanksgiving Eve service. Combined choral presentations are offered at various times. Member churches host services and events on a rotating basis. In addition, the churches work together to support community outreach in the area.
